 - School based INSET
 - Pupil monitoring with school EMA Leader
 - The development of inclusive classroom approaches
 - Pupil voice – in relation to minority ethnic pupils
 - Work with families and communities
 - Planning and policy development
 - Inclusive curriculum development
- Some case work in partnership with the Inclusion Leader, mainly for minority ethnic pupils with a high level of need.
 - Access to EMAS universal services (as detailed above).
 - Some specialist project work, targeted schools only.

Services to other schools and settings

- Case work support for minority ethnic pupils in need. Assessment, action planning and monitoring.
- Access to EMAS universal services (as detailed above).

Pupil referral

If there are concerns about a particular pupil please contact the service giving the following information:

- Name of the local authority, school or setting
- Name of the member of staff with responsibility in the school or setting
- Name of the pupil, year group, linguistic and cultural background
- Any interpreting or other access needs in relation to discussions with the pupil's parent / carers
- The nature of the concern

Pupil referrals may either be made to the Telephone Helpline 01454 862786 or by e mail to emas@southglos.gov.uk.

If the school has a trained EMA Leader please discuss any pupil concerns with the school EMA Leader in the first instance. The EMA Leader will then contact EMAS if additional assistance is required
